BAND STORY

"For me, the journey can be summed up by asking 3 questions of myself- Where have I been? Where am I at? Where am I going? Somewhere between the pains and regrets of the past, and eternity where salvation translates to a perfect existence of peace and communion with my God and Savior, is the present struggle between the two that I endure from day to day. It's this constant struggle and the hope of eternity that gives me something to write about, and something to sing about. (Actually I'm not much of a singer, but you know what I mean.) Life. I don't need fortune and fame, and I'm never going to make a million dollars writing songs, but it is my hope that somehow God will use my songs to bring you to a closer relationship to Him. Please remember that no matter how bad we screw things up God still loves us. There is no such thing as a hopeless cause in His eyes. He's simply a prayer away. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. Jeremiah 29:13 "
