BAND STORY

I started out as a bass player in a family band about fifteen years ago. I came to know the Lord in 1993 when I met my wife, and a year later we were married and in 1996 we had our son Joey. About a month before my dad's passing in 2000, he had encouraged me to sing, so I bought a guitar, and ironically wrote and sang a song for him at his wake called "Here I am". The Lord continued blessing me with songs, and a year later I released a CD called "Father To Son", it was dedicated to my dad, and had songs of love to my wife, songs of encouragement, and praise songs to the Lord. Since then I have written many songs and have been blessed with many opportunities to perform with some of my Christian musician friends in the tri-state area, at coffee houses, Churches, Christian Overcome events, Ocean Grove Gospel music ministries, lead worship at my Church in Fort Lee NJ. I had released a second CD called "Hands of God" in 2006 and am excited about my new CD called "Risen Son," which will be finished in early 2009. I am looking forward to sharing the songs the Lord has put on my heart, and look forward to ministering the Gospel where ever God would lead me.

God bless!
In Christ,
Joe
